NANYANG TECHNOPRENEURSHIP CENTER

Nanyang Technopreneurship Center (NTC) was established by NTU to be the focal point of Technopreneurship development both locally and regionally. NTC equips its students with necessary knowledge and skills in entrepreneurship competence through the Master of Science in Technopreneurship and Innovation Program (MSc TIP) for postgraduates, Minor in Entrepreneurship Program (MiE) for undergraduates and Entrepreneurship Development Program for executives.

NTU is putting its global stamp on Five Peaks of Excellence: Sustainable Earth, Future Healthcare, New Media, New Silk Road, and Innovation Asia. In line with Singapore’s vision to be a global creative and entrepreneurial nation, NTC is spearheading events to stimulate the entrepreneurial spirit and aims to inspire the community to discover innate entrepreneurial and innovative talents to make a meaningful difference to humanity.

ABOUT E&I FESTIVAL

E&I Festival features a week of entrepreneurship and innovation-themed celebrations initiated by Nanyang Technopreneurship Center (NTC). NTC engages the 33,500-strong NTU student cohort along with the broader NTU community through talks, corporate visits, movies, start-up bazaars and various games and activities.

NTC aims to promote entrepreneurship by inspiring the NTU community to embrace the spirit of entrepreneurialism and innovation. To aid this goal, NTC provides programmes with unique experiential learning elements to stimulate the creation and evaluation process of new business ventures.
